

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Whitehouse Wind Symphony to Present Free Concert in Somerville

SOMERVILLE, NJ - The Whitehouse Wind Symphony, a community band under the direction of Branchburg resident James P. Sheeley, Jr. will present a free concert inside Good Shepherd Lutheran Church (300 Union Avenue) at 3:00pm on Saturday, April 5, 2025. The band is very excited to return to this venue for a second time!

The concert program is entitled "Music From Around the World," and will feature various stylistic selections such as "Danzas Cubanas" by Robert Sheldon, an arrangement of John Williams' "The Cowboys", "Variations on a Korean Folk Song" by James Barnes Chance, as well as marches such as "Brighton Beach" by William P. Latham.

The concert is free and open to the general public, although donations will be accepted to benefit the band, a non-profit group comprised entirely of volunteer musicians. In the event of dangerous travel conditions or public health emergency, the decision to cancel this concert will be announced on the band's website (whitehousewindsymphony.org), Facebook page (facebook.com/whitehousewind), and Instagram feed (instagram.com/whitehousewind).

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church is handicapped accessible with ramp entrances, wide doors and restroom facilities (located between Rooms A and B.) Large print programs are available upon request.

The Whitehouse Wind Symphony was founded in 1996. It is dedicated to presenting the best in all varieties of wind band literature. Since its founding, the band has grown rapidly, attracting experienced musicians as regular members from all over New Jersey, as well as New York City and eastern Pennsylvania. It is now comprised of approximately 50 amateur and professional musicians who perform together regularly to enthusiastic audiences throughout central and northern New Jersey. The band was named the winner of the 202 Hunterdon Happening List in the category of favorite band/musician! For more information, including information about future performances, please send an email to whitehousewindsymphony@gmail.com.

Made possible with funds from the Hunterdon County Cultural & Heritage Commission, a partner of the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.
